This Week's Events

Church AGM 12.30pm TODAY

Please stay for a quick lunch followed by our church's AGM. This year, we are changing the format of the AGM a little so that whilst we will still, of course, cover the necessary business matters of appointments and finance, we will be making the meeting more light-hearted and will be focussing on the need for unity in our Church.

Sunday 13th April, 5pm. Songs of Praise on TV. Please note that Christians Against Poverty (CAP) are taking part in this programme and will be briefly explaining their story and the national impact that CAP is having on people's lives. Please try to watch this if you can!!!!

Wednesday 16th April 12.30pm. A short Holy Week service, including communion, will be held in The Parlour. This is an extended version of the Friendship Lunch Club's normal monthly communion. Everyone welcome, even if you are not a member of the Friendship Club. You are also welcome to stay for lunch at 1pm but please call Bob or Jean (563763) in advance to book. Lunch costs £3.50.

Crossings Out

The comprehensive review document "Crossings Out" produced by the Circuit is available for anyone to read, pray about and comment on. If you have questions or comments please refer them (email or in writing please) to Andrew Stead or any member of the Leadership Team. Exciting and innovative plans for the future of our circuit need to be highlighted in our prayers and because we believe that God means business in Hull NOW. The main copy of this document is at the back of church – please replace it when read – further copies are available on loan from: Keith Robinson, Brenda Hammonds, Stee Saunders, Andy Umpleby or Bob Richardson.
