NEWS & APPEALS

Cooking at Church As part of our summer clean up, we have spent a significant sum on having our oven professionally cleaned. It would be good if everyone who uses it from now on would make a concerted effort to leave it as clean a state as possible. Thank you. The Property Team

CAP Debt Centre - Appeal.

I urgently need more volunteers to be befrienders to new clients. The role only requires approx. half an hour a week (apart from the first visit which takes 2 hours) and is so rewarding. (I am particularly short of men volunteers!!!). If you feel that you could help, it would really be appreciated. Thanks. Denise (352003).

Summer Holidays

During the school holidays our morning services will be all-age services as our children and youth workers are taking a well-earned rest and an insufficient number of volunteers have come forward to fill the gap. Normal service will be resumed from 2nd Sunday in September.

Wednesday Lunch Club (formerly known as Friendship Club). Can You Help????

We have a need for additional support with serving lunches on Wednesdays (on a rota that involves a once-a-month commitment: 11.30am to 2.30pm). We also need an additional team leader who will take responsibility for buying and cooking. On-line training for a Level 2 Hygiene Certificate will be provided. If you can assist with either of these important roles, please speak to Bob or Jean Richardson or Steve Saunders. Thank you.

George Hall Do you know a local preacher from Bransholme called George Hall? He is retiring from the pulpit after 48 years plus 3 years on note. His final service will be on Sunday 31st August at Bransholme and there is a celebration party afterwards; however George is not aware of this at the moment. If you know George and would like to join the celebrations, please contact Lezlee Mennell at Bransholme Church.
