Church Laundry
Could you offer to wash church tea cloths and a few towels for just one month? Please sign up on the noticeboard outside the kitchen door. Your efforts will be very much appreciated in sharing the load. Many thanks – Brian & Chris Smith.

Harvest Gifts. As mentioned, the gifts this year will be going to our local CAP clients. It would be very much appreciated if you could bring along non-perishable (or long life) foodstuffs, anything handmade (gloves, scarves, craft items etc) and in particular toiletries. (We have one client who is diabetic and one client who is gluten intolerant)

(Harvest Gifts cont.) As usual, please bring these along to the service on the 5th. Thank you so much.

Apology/Clarification The entry in last week's notices regarding Harvest Gifts suggested that you may wish to provide "nice toiletries". I just want to make it absolutely clear that I was not suggesting that you should only provide branded or expensive toiletries. I was suggesting that it might be particularly nice for CAP clients to receive the type of toiletries that they could view as special or a little luxury (e.g. bath foam, body lotion, shower gel, nail varnish etc) as these are the sort of items that people usually do not buy themselves when money is tight. All gifts are appreciated, however small or inexpensive they may be. I am sorry if the description of "nice toiletries" upset or offended any of you – obviously that was not at all the intention and just shows how the written word can be easily misinterpreted!! God bless. Denise.

From the Treasurer.....

You will note from the Traffic Lights on the front of the recent notice sheet that our offering has declined and we were significantly below budget for the last financial year. As we embark on a new Methodist year, I would graciously ask you to review your giving. Further initiatives aimed at increasing our income are being planned by the Finance Team and will be publicised in due course.
