The usual box with info/leaflets etc. will appear at the back of the church soon with the last date for donations which will be the third week of November. N.B. to volunteers. Ebola and Sierra Leone. We have received 2 notices this week. The first concerns a meeting at Harrogate Road Methodist Church in Ripon next Saturday at 10am. The second one is a letter from the Methodist Church in Sierra Leone that has come via Rev. Martin Batstone of our circuit who has recently returned from Sierra Leone. Please see the notice and letter on the Notice Board.

THANK YOU

Many thanks to everyone for the incredibly generous harvest gifts, which this year have been distributed to our CAP Debt Centre clients. With your gifts you have supported 20 families and everyone expressed surprise and genuine pleasure at the unexpected gifts. One client (who is technically homeless and currently staying with a family member) said that he could not believe that people who did not know him could be quite so generous. So thank you all. Denise.
