Operation Christmas Child

To clarify the situation..... Although I have resigned as Warehouse Manager, we at Anlaby Park WILL continue to support the annual campaigns. The usual box with info/leaflets etc. will appear at the back of the church soon with the last date for donations which will be the third week of November. N.B.to volunteers. Negotiations are underway and there WILL be a warehouse in Hull NOT Hornsea. Thanks in advance for your support!!! Brenda Sanderson.

Youth Club Banner.

The inspiration for this impromptu banner was borne out of showing everyone what the young people of Youth Club do on a Friday evening. It was designed by individuals and was put together as a group. The knitted fish initially scared them as they thought they would have to knit a fish! But that went on to inspire them all. Beginning the new term we welcomed 6 new young people into Youth Club and 2 of them helped make 2 items for the banner you see on the wall. Kelly made a blue starfish and Kisstini made the pink sparkly fish. Amelia designed and cut out the seaweed and the seabed. Eleanor made the golden starfish and Phoebe made the gold button eyed starfish. Chloe made the blue paisley print fish with a red eye. Ika created a sea eel, whilst with time short Cerys used the same pattern and made another. The title was thought up by Eleanor and carefully coloured by her, Jess, Phoebe C, and Kisstini. They have done a great job given we have only had 4 one hour sessions to begin, create and finish. JK
