Fund Raising As part of the Resources team, with our fund raising hats on, Roger and myself are thinking of putting on an 'Auction of Promises' evening. We would like to get an idea whether this would be viable, as we need some promises! Promises could be anything from making a cake, knitting a jumper, cleaning a car or providing dinner for two at your house, anything really. We have done this before and it was good fun. We thought we would combine the auction with a light supper and lashings of tea! Please see Roger or me - Sue Rowe if you have any ideas. PS – date for your diary – Christmas Fayre - afternoon 14th November. Crafty people get busy!

Knitted Zebra Crossing. If you or anyone you know has managed to knit any zebra crossing for us we are very grateful! Please could you get in touch with me so that I can arrange to collect the knitting so we can put the crossing together in early September. Thanks – Liane Kensett (tel: 642159)

THANKS

Thank you to all the adults and young people from church who spent three days last week running a holiday club for children in our community. This year was a much smaller group of children than previously but it doesn't seem to lessen the work involved!! Thank you all for your support. On Sunday morning Matt will be sharing some of the ideas and songs which we shared. Margaret Saunders.
