NEWS & APPEALS

Wednesday Luncheon Club From mid-August onwards the Wednesday Luncheon Club may need help with transporting some of its members there and back. We are making tentative inquiries to see if anyone in the church may be able to help in this respect?

If there were a few people who could possibly help with this, then a rota could be set up so that it was not a weekly commitment but maybe on a monthly basis. If there is anyone who thinks they may be able to help please contact either Dave Rowe or Brian Smith.

Thank you on behalf of the Wednesday Lunch Club (part of Outreach Management Committee).

Fund Raising As part of the Resources team, with our fund raising hats on, Roger and myself are thinking of putting on an 'Auction of Promises' evening. We would like to get an idea whether this would be viable, as we need some promises! Promises could be anything from making a cake, knitting a jumper, cleaning a car or providing dinner for two at your house, anything really. We have done this before and it was good fun. We thought we would combine the auction with a light supper and lashings of tea!

Please see Roger or me - Sue Rowe if you have any ideas.

PS – date for your diary – Christmas Fayre - afternoon 14th November. Crafty people get busy!

Cotton Reels The York and Hull District will be working alongside the Methodist inter-faith organisation, Touchstone, over the next three years. Touchstone is moving to new premises in Bradford, to a building that was formerly a mill owned by the Dewhurst family who made Dewhurst and Sylko sewing thread.

Touchstone are collecting old Dewhurst/Sylko cotton reels, empty or full, as a fundraising venture. Any reels can be posted to Touchstone at 32 Merton Road, Bradford, BD7 1RE. A representative from Touchstone will be speaking at Synod in September 2016 so we will be hearing more about their work on that occasion.

Knitted Zebra Crossing. If you or anyone you know has managed to knit any sebra crossing for us we are very grateful! Please could you get in touch with me so that I can arrange to collect the knitting so we can put the crossing together in early September. Thanks – Liane Kensett (tel: 642159)

The "Open Doors Project" - Appeal. Open Doors urgently needs support – hence they have set up an Open Doors 200 Group. They are requesting those who are able to set up a monthly subscription. Further information is available at the back of church.
