NEWS & APPEALS

Rev Tony Walton

You may remember Tony Walton, who spent many years in our circuit as a local preacher and then went on to candidate for the ministry. He was minister in local appointment in the Hull West circuit with responsibility for Springville. He then moved out of the area and later retired. He lives in Horbury with his wife Enid. Tony has asked for the following message to be circulated: “At the end of June, Rev Tony Walton was suddenly taken ill. Tests have revealed the presence of cancer behind his eyes and kidneys. He is currently being cared for in Wakefield hospice. Tony’s faith is as strong as ever and he would welcome visitors during visiting hours (9.30am to 8pm Tues-

Sun). Wakefield hospice is on Aberford Road, Wakefield. Tel: 01924 213900.” Please support Tony and his family in prayer at this difficult time.

The next Circuit Meeting. The recently circulated notice for the next circuit meeting gave the wrong date. The correct date is 10th September, 7.30pm at Willerby.

New Address for The Sheards.

Matt & Julia Sheard move house on 15th Aug. The new address is: 9 Mortimer Avenue, Hull, HU10 6UR. The telephone no remains the same.

Memory Walk. I am doing the Alzheimer’s Society Memory Walk across the Humber Bridge on Saturday 12th September 2015 and would be really grateful for any sponsorship, either online at www.justgiving.com/MW15rogersling_sby or by completing my form in the church. Thanks – Roger Slingsby.

Mission Shaped Ministry Course. This is a one-year part time course being promoted by the Methodist Church and the Pioneer Connexion and individuals or groups of people would be most welcome. The course starts on 19th September. See noticeboard for more information.
