Queen's Birthday Street Party

June 12th 2016

Volunteers needed

Can you bake a cake?

We are providing a party food lunch for the local community and church members. Anyone who is willing to make one (or more!) cakes for, please speak to Jean Richardson or Nancy Slingsby. We don't need anything fancy, just plain sponge cakes or fairy buns are perfect!

Can you butter bread?

On the morning of the event, Jean and Nancy and a team of volunteers will be making hundreds of sandwiches for the lunch while the Messy Church service is taking place. If you would like to volunteer to help with this, please speak to Jean or Nancy.

Can you take part in games?

Following the party lunch, we will be having traditional games (e.g. hook a duck) in the car park and hall. If you feel able to volunteer to help man one of these for part of the day, please speak to Rachael Getgood.

We also need volunteers to go in the stocks (wet sponges) that Jon Parker is making. If you think this might be you, please let us know!

Can you lend us any memorabilia?

Sue Rowe is setting up space in the coffee shop for memories of the Queen and her life. If you have any memorabilia you could lend for the occasion, please speak to Sue (e.g. photos, memories, tea towels, etc.)
