NEWS & APPEALS

Fair Trade: You may have noticed that we have not had a Fair Trade Stall at church for a while. This is because of problems at the shop in Waltham Street where we collected the items on a 'sale or return' basis. Unfortunately the shop has now closed so we will no longer be having the monthly stall at church. We would like to thank everyone who has supported the stall over the years which has been much appreciated. We will still be a Fair Trade Church using their tea/coffee etc. in our building and will see the supplies in the kitchen are still there to use. There are many Fair Trade goods in the shops now and we would encourage you to buy them for your own use whenever possible and continue to help those less fortunate than ourselves. If anyone would like any more information please ask one of us. Many thanks again. Jean & Bob Richardson

Representative for the Circuit Meeting. Nominations from our church for the role of a representative will be taken at our Church Council meeting on 22nd June 2016. If you would like to be nominated for this role, could you please ensure that someone nominates and seconds your application, and that it is sent to me before 13th June. Thanks. Brenda Hammonds.

Servant Queen Books. As part of the celebrations for the Queen’s 90th birthday, a book has been produced about the Queen and her faith. We would like to use this book as a tool for outreach and encourage you to buy two copies for £1 each; one to keep and one (or more) to give away. If you do not know who to give your spare copy to, we can help with that! We would like to give a copy to all members of the uniformed organisations and will also have some to give away at the street party.

THANK YOU

As it is National Volunteers Week this week, we would just like to say a really big thank you to all the people who volunteer in different roles within our church. So many people do jobs which no-one ever really notices, but are vital to the smooth running of our church. So thank you – it really is appreciated!
