Vintage Tea (held last Sat) – update!!!

Nearly 100 people attended and we all had a fantastic afternoon. The tables look lovely, the singers were amazing and the food was scrumptious. Thank you to all the ladies (and gentleman!) who contributed traybakes, buns, scones and savouries. We may have over-estimated a little but all the contributions – both on the afternoon, Sunday morning, Alpha groups, Selby Street, and International House were all appreciative and nothing went to waste. On top of that we made an amazing £486!!!! Denise Robinson, and David Rowe were amazing, along with Chris Hornsby who served and helped wash up with an array of willing helpers. Thank you to all who took part in our first fund raiser/social. We would not have done it without you. Sue & Keith x.

Sainsbury's Kids Vouchers. A big thank you to everyone who collected vouchers for our uniformed organisations – we are very grateful for them. IF you have any tucked away I am still happy to collect them even though the collection period has ended. Thank you – Val Haynes.

Grow Your Own! Home-grown tomatoes can taste so much better! Brian & Chris Smith, as usual, have tomato plants for sale for Ignition

Funds. Please contact us on 01482 656179 and home delivery can be arranged. We have small cherry tomato plants and the larger Alicanti variety. Have a go & enjoy the results!! Brian & Chris Smith.
