NEWS & APPEALS

Let’s celebrate. At a recent Care team meeting it was decided that we would like the children of the church feel proud of their achievements and encourage them to give thanks for them. To help us do this, Candy and Chloe have made a lovely board with envelopes on the back. If any children you bring to church have any certificates from that week (star of the week, swimming, behaviour achievements) or birthdays that they would like to celebrate then please bring them along and put them in the appropriate envelope or give them to a steward before the service. These will then be announced when the children join the service.

Local Preachers. Our local preachers are leading services today at: Central (Steve Saunders), Cottingham (Andrew Creamer), North Ferriby (William Bryan-Smith). Please remember them in your prayers.

Sad News. Allan Patmore was a Local Preacher of great distinction whom Hull West Circuit of the Methodist Church was blessed with up until 10 or so years ago. Allan moved to Chesterfield when cruelly affected by dementia at the early age of 75. He died last week and we send heartfelt prayers of thanksgiving and comfort to all who knew Allan and took such delight and strength from his faith and preaching.
