THIS WEEKS EVENTS

Coffee and Chat Launch Day 16th July 2pm in the Church. It does what it says on the tin! Come and meet people, chat and laugh whilst drinking coffee and eating cake. What is there not to like?

NEWS & APPEALS

New White Folding Tables. We have now replaced the seven old brown tables, which used to live in the Trinity Room, with eight brand new white topped folding tables and these are being stored in proximity to the piano in the Trinity Room. These tables are, of course, available for use by any group meeting on Church premises and can be used as working surfaces or can be covered by a table cloth.

If the table tops are used uncovered it is important and a matter of respect to other users that they are always left in a clean condition ready for use by others. The tables should be stored, after use, exactly as they are found and great care needs to be taken not to allow damage to occur, especially to the corners of the table tops. The 'folding' operation is not complicated but care should be taken so that fingers do not get pinched as the tables are being folded and unfolded. This applies particularly where children and young people are involved. We are hoping to obtain a trolley to store the tables in due course but there is not such a thing in stock with the suppliers just at the moment. The Property Team. July 2018

Wooden Side Gate The padlock to the Side Gate has ended its useful life! A new padlock has been provided and the key can be found in the usual place. The Property Team

Preachers. Eileen George is at Selby Street, William Bryan-Smith is at Trinity and Andrew Creamer is at Willerby. Please remember them in your prayers
