DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Tuesday 6th November 7.30pm Resources Management Team
Regrettably, it was necessary to postpone the meeting originally fixed for Tuesday 9 October. We have now rearranged that for Tuesday 6 November. Please put the date in your diary and take a look at the separate leaflet giving details of what we are planning to do on 6 November. The meeting will happen in the Coffee Shop.

Saturday 17th November 11am.
Our annual Christmas Market at AP. The Market will feature many stalls, one of them being the cake stall, always very popular. If anyone can make cakes or buns or savouries, please see Anne Hall or Rose Simpson. We would be most grateful. Sue Rowe.

NEWS & APPEALS

Laundry List Update Would as many volunteers as possible please sign up for washing church tea cloths and towels over a four week period? The list is on the notice board to the right of the church kitchen door. Many thanks to all who can help.

Remembrance Sunday idea. Steve and Margaret are leading worship and are exploring the possibility of people knitting or crocheting 100 poppies which could then be tied onto a net for a visual focus at the morning service? A thread is left at cast on and cast off so that there is something to do the tying. If someone wants to remember a specific person or event then a label could be attached. There are many patterns on the internet that can be copied in case you do not have access to a computer. Anyone with any development of this idea or who has a net, please speak to Margaret or Steve.

Operation Christmas Child Shoeboxes. If you wish to fill a shoebox this year, I have the latest leaflets. Unfortunately, Ignition Coffee is not down on the Drop-Off list this year. Please take any filled boxes to either 'The Entertainer' or 'Shozone' shops. Barbara Hallam

Preachers. This morning, Brenda Hammonds is at Brough, Andrew is at Selby Street and in the evening, he is at Central. Please remember them in your prayers
